

DSA @ PRIDE!

LGBTQIA+ and our allies: join us to march for our vision of social justice.

Sunday, June 25 | 10am–3pm

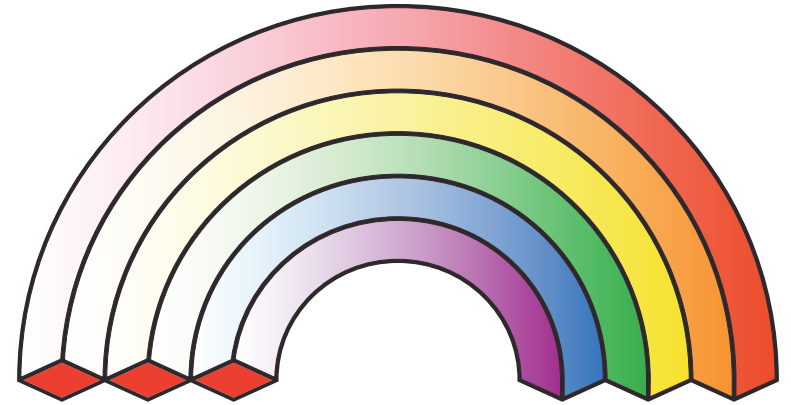

E 41st St between Park + Madison Aves.

The NYC Pride March traces its history to 1970, one year after the Stonewall Riots began the LGBTQ rights movement. This year, DSA will march to bring a strong, socialist presence to the event. We demand recognition of the central role trans women of color have played in the movement. We seek a return to the March's roots as a movement for queer liberation.

We're Here. We're Queer.
We're Democratic Socialists.
